TV remote for all brands

Whatever TV you've got, the Perfect Replacement Universal remote handles it. It works on all European brands.

Perfect Replacement for lost or broken remotes

No delays if you break or lose a remote control. No long waits for an out-of-production remote for your faithful TV. The Perfect Replacement Universal remote works with all European brands.

Includes important function like teletext

There's a range of teletext and other useful functions for ease-of-use from the comfort of your armchair.

Tough, shockproof and water resistant

The Perfect Replacement Universal remote can take the knocks of everyday life in an active home. Drop it – even splash drinks on it – and its tough, water-resistant housing means you can keep on zapping.

Ready for use in seconds

The set-up procedure is so straightforward, you'll be controlling your TV in seconds – whatever brand you use. And for Philips TVs, it's simply press and go! The unique Philips Simple System Setup™ featuring handsfree autosearch takes the hard work out of getting the remote ready for action.

Perfect Replacement: the perfect solution for lost or broken remotes!
