

User Manual Addendum

1. Notes on charging the built-in lithium battery

Please note that your device contains built-in lithium batteries. The charging capacity of lithium batteries will decrease over time due to their self-discharge characteristics. To ensure the longevity of your device's battery, we recommend charging the built-in lithium battery to around 50% every 6 months when the device is not in use.